The Rogers County Free Fair Board wishes to take this opportunity to thank the County Commissioners, the Excise Board and the County Extension Office staff of Rogers County and Vocational Agriculture instructors for their support and cooperation toward the encouragement of a better fair.

IMPORTANT NOTICE

The Rogers County Free Fair Board wishes to take this opportunity to welcome all Rogers County residents to exhibit and attend the Rogers County Free Fair in September. Every effort is being made by the Board to make this a successful fair with a large number of quality exhibits, plenty of entertainment and a place for you to meet your friends. With your cooperation, we believe that a very successful fair can be held this year which will not only have an educational value, but will also assist in maintaining the morale of Rogers County farmers, 4-H Clubs and FFA Chapters members and encourage the production of more and better food products.

This catalog, including the premium list, for the 2022 Rogers County Free Fair, is being printed previous to final action on the Rogers County Free Fair Board estimate by the County Commissioners and the Rogers County Excise Board. The catalog is being issued, therefore, with the distinct understanding that if for any reason whatsoever, sufficient funds are not available to pay in full premiums and awards as listed, the Rogers County Free Fair Board reserves the right to prorate premiums on a percentage basis. The attention of all exhibitors is especially called to this condition and provision, and exhibits are accepted only with this definite understanding.

It is a well-known fact that up to the present time it has never been necessary in Rogers County to prorate premiums, the appropriations for the Fair having been sufficient in every instance to pay all premiums in full. It is the opinion of the Board that this will also be true this year, and is not anticipated that prorating of premiums will be necessary. The Board solicits your continued cooperation on the above condition, with the hope and belief that the appropriation will be sufficient to pay all premiums in full and that it will not be necessary to take into account the above provision.

It is the purpose of the Fair Board to do everything that is possible to make this Free Fair a success and to add to the comforts, pleasures and conveniences of the visitors and exhibitors who attend.

Our Fair last year was a success, and with the past experience we hope to be able to serve the people who contributed to much better advantage this year. We hope our agricultural exhibits will be better and larger this year, which will demonstrate that Rogers County is second to none in the State.

The agricultural exhibits will clearly portray the wonderful agricultural resources of the County; the livestock show will be evidence of the fact that Rogers County is outstanding from the standpoint of the quality of the livestock.

The Free Fair Board earnestly solicits your support and cooperation in making this fair a success, as no other factor does more to stimulate and improve farm conditions than agricultural fairs, where one may observe the improvements of farm crops and animals and compare them with their own. The management appeals to you to lend your support by bringing exhibits, boosting and attending. It is upon your support that we depend for a successful Fair.

The use of such practices or procedures is, therefore, considered a violation of the Rules and Regulations governing this show.

1. Misrepresenting the age, breed or weight of the animal for the class in which it is shown.
2. Treating or massaging any part of the body internally or externally with an irritant, counter-irritant, or other substance to temporarily straighten a weak back or loin or to produce unnatural animation.
3. Minimize the effects of crampiness by feeding or injecting drugs, depressants or applying packs or using any artificial contrivance or therapeutic treatment exempting normal exercise.
4. Striking the animal to cause swelling.
5. Surgery or any other procedure performed to change the natural process of growth, maturation, contour or appearance of any animal, to include teeth, is prohibited. Not included is removal of teats or horns, clipping and dressing of hair and trimming of hooves.

A protest is considered to be filed when delivered in person to a member of the Rogers County Free Fair Board.

The Fair Board reserves the right to recognize fraudulent actions which are accomplished or attempted in connection with any exhibit. This right is held independent of protests filed by exhibitors or other interested parties. The Fair Board may take action regardless of whomever files the protest.

No complaint will be accepted based solely on observation that the judge or judges are incompetent or have overlooked an animal or article. The right of an exhibitor to appeal or protest the decisions of a judge will be limited to the following cases:

1. It is charged the exhibit or award violated the rules governing the exhibition of the animal or article.

The Fair Board will convene a reviewing committee meeting within 24 hours following the receipt of a protest. This committee shall consist of three Fair Board members to be selected from separate election districts within the county. If member of protest committee is involved directly or indirectly with the individual filing the protest or under protest then he/she will be replaced by the first available alternate from that district. At this meeting the committee may uphold, reject or table the protest based on the merits of the case. Members of the committee will be held blameless regarding the outcome from the protest.

Persons wishing to present an appeal of the committee's decision must make a deposit of $100 and present the information at the next meeting of the Rogers County Free Fair Board Association. Deposits will be refunded only if the final protest is sustained. A request for an agenda item must be made in accordance with the governing rules of board. The decision of the Fair Board is final in all matters.

All questions or disputes not provided for under these rules shall be referred to the Fair Board for interpretation within the time period indicated above.

RELEASE OF LIABILITY: Participation in the Rogers County Free Fair as an exhibitor, owner, handler or volunteer shall constitute a release of liability of the R.C.F.F.A., its officers, directors, agents and employees and of Rogers County and the Board of County Commissioners for any personal injury or damage to animals or property occurring at the Rogers County Free Fair. Each exhibitor (or exhibitor's parents if a minor), owner, handler or volunteer shall indemnify and hold harmless the R.C.F.F.A., its officers, directors, agents and employees, Rogers County and the Board of County Commissioners from all claims, demands and causes of action and expenses of every kind arising out of any acts or omissions of the exhibitor, owner, handler or volunteer or animals in the care and control of any such person. Presentation of a signed entry form or appearance on the grounds of the Rogers County Free Fair as an exhibitor, owner, handler or volunteer shall be deemed acceptance of the conditions of this rule. BEST KEPT BARN

Superintendent—Amber Spafford

Given the importance of presenting information and demonstrating high standards of animal husbandry to the public, the Best Kept Barn Award recognizes the most outstanding group in each species area. All groups are expected to manage their livestock exhibits in a manner that enhances the image and integrity of 4-H and FFA programs in Rogers County while engaging with the public in an informative and professional manner.

The Best Kept Barn winners will be announced at the premium auction where an individual plaque and $500 prize will be awarded to the winner in each division (1) beef, (2) sheep, (3) swine, (4) goats, (5) dairy.

The following practices and considerations are important when presenting livestock projects to the public. These factors will be included in the judging criteria. Groups will be evaluated multiple times during the fair at various times during the day.

- General order and appearance of stalling/pen area
- Organization of equipment
- Group signage that identifies the group and species
- Stall or pen cards which identify animal breed and exhibitor information
- Cleanliness, dust and mud control
- Safety in animal preparation area
- Safe viewing access for the public
- Knowledgeable organizational representative with the group display throughout the fair
- Information about the group, species and projects should be available or visible to the public
- Innovation and excellence in communicating with the public will be rewarded
- Hospitality areas where food for exhibitors is available is to observe food safety principles and to be neat and clean at ALL times
- Decorations and lights are certainly permitted but they are not the chief criteria upon which the judges will base their decision. Best Kept Barn is more about outreach to the non-agriculture public than it is about decorations

Engineering Design Challenge

Criteria:

Engineering design challenges are intended to encourage 4-H members to use the engineering design process to create their own projects. These projects should include an engineering notebook, journal or description which answer the following questions about their project. Projects without an engineering notebook will be judged accordingly. Projects with notebooks will place before projects without notebooks, journals, or descriptions.

- What is the challenge or task of your project (Example: Throw a marshmallow six feet, incorporate technology into clothing, create alternative energy, design and build a rubber band powered car, etc.)
- Draw your design
- How did you test your design?
- What were the results?
- How did you change your design to improve it?
- Did you retest it? Did the results improve?
- Describe your final design and does it work?

Engineering Design Challenges will be judged based on creativity, design, function and recordkeeping (journal or engineering notebook).

Juniors—Grades 3-7; Seniors—Grades 8-12

Marshmallow catapult challenge design task

Design a trebuchet-style swing arm catapult. It may be similar to a teeter-totter or swing set. The beam (arm) is able to swing

(go up and down). The arm of the catapult must be adjustable from the center to an offset (One side of the beam is longer from center pivot point). Use at least five (5) different types of materials or parts (craft sticks, brads, dowels, etc.). Use weights and gravity as the power source. Catapult cannot be any larger than a 3-foot cube (3' x 3' x 3'). Launch a marshmallow at least six (6) feet. A journal or engineering notebook should be included to describe the creation, purpose and function of the device. Explain how you built and tested your catapult. Chart your marshmallow launches. Alternative Energy Design Challenge

Design and build a device to utilize wind, solar, or water power. Commercially available parts are acceptable but the majority of the project must be homemade by the member. Must fit entirely within a 12-inch cube (12"x12"x12"). A journal or notebook should be included to describe the creation, purpose and function of the device. Rubber Band-Powered Vehicle Design Challenge

Design a wheel-driven vehicle, powered only by one rubber band (size #64 approx. 1/4" wide by 3 1/2" long by 1/32" thick.), which will transport a one-pound "load" (box of baking soda approx. size: 3 1/2" x 4 1/2" x 2") at least 9 feet (on a smooth flat floor) while remaining within the boundaries of a 3 ft. wide parallel track (marked off with masking tape). Speed is not a criteria.

There are no restrictions on materials, size, weight or number of wheels. However, the only energy source permitted is the elastic energy of one rubber band. Commercially assembled vehicles are NOT permitted. However, commercially manufactured components may be used as parts of the vehicle. The vehicle must be self-starting (i.e., no pushing, external power starts, etc.). Propulsion of the vehicle must be through the wheels (i.e. no propellers, no launching mechanism). Transferring the energy of the rubber band to wheels via gears, fly wheels, etc., is encouraged. No remote-control devices are permitted.

A journal or engineering notebook should be included to describe the creation, purpose and function of the device. Explain how you built and tested your vehicle and if you made any modifications. Chart or graph collected data and explain how you measured improvements in your engineering notebook or journal.

The Future of Agriculture Research Challenge Displays

The future of agriculture research displays will illustrate current research and forward/futuristic thinking that is changing the field agriculture and agricultural based careers. 4-H members will research current trends, future thoughts and ideas for continuing to effectively feed the world. These projects should have a minimum of three scholarly references identifying where and when the information was published. These projects may:

- Describe the challenging need for increased food production for a growing population
- Describe a new agricultural production technique or an emerging agricultural technology that will enhance or improve our agricultural and food production systems
- Illustrate a new vision for the future of agriculture
- Describe new STEM-based careers in agriculture

Research displays should use research-based information and resources to answer questions similar to the following. “What will the future of Agriculture look like?”, “How will agriculturalist feed an ever-growing population?” or “What are future careers in agriculture?”

All research displays should be mounted on a free-standing display board not to exceed 3’ x 4’ when the sides are extended for display. Commercially available “Science Fair Presentation boards” are encouraged”. Displays should be readable/understandable from a distance of 10 ft. A complete research report should be included with the display in a notebook.

4-H members are encouraged to use their 4-H projects as the basis for their scientific research and discovery project. Exhibits should relate to one of the following topics:

• Behavioral & Social Sciences	• Engineering
--------------------------------	---------------

• Biochemistry, Medicine, & Health Sciences	• Environmental Sciences
• Botany & Zoological Sciences	• Mathematics

CONSUMER / FAMILY SCIENCES DIVISION SECTION 306—4-H DESIGN AND CONSTRUCTION

- Fall 2022—All Design & Construction projects will be REQUIRED to have the Skill Mastery Sheet securely attached to the project. Use a safety pin and attach directly to the exhibit when at all possible. NEVER attach sheet to a hanger! The sheet MUST be completed by the 4-H member.
- The Skill Mastery sheet <https://4h.okstate.edu/projects/design-and-construction/curriculum-and-patterns.html> is an education tool to guide project work. Click Sample Technique Cards to find instruction for many of the techniques noted in the skill sheets (i.e. facings, zippers, hems, fasteners, etc.).
- Instruction Sheets for the projects listed can be found at: <https://4h.okstate.edu/projects/design-and-construction/project-guide-sheets.html>
- Fair exhibits have been carefully selected and directed for members to investigate and learn specific skills/information and to demonstrate mastery of these skills/information.
- The end product/exhibit is being evaluated on the skills "learned/mastered." The skill sheet serves as a member's "personal reflection" and communicates to the judge what was learned. Why is this important? Because in 4-H, the reflection and application of what was learned is more important than the end product/exhibit.
- The skill sheet is to be used as a planning tool. It is important that each 4-H member take responsibility for the life skill of "learning to learn." This may require members, leaders and educators to look up terms and learn techniques as part of the educational process.
- Resources, instructions and project guides are posted online. Members are encouraged to seek out other valid resources which teach proper technique and knowledge in the areas of design and construction.

General Skills to be mastered in project/product in ADC, IDC and HTDC:

- Structural Design: Construction technique, size, form, color and texture suited to the materials and product end use.

- Elements of Design: The finished product illustrates the member is learning or “mastering the basic elements of design - line, shape or form, texture, color, and space.
- Principles of Design: The finished product illustrates an awareness and application of the principles of harmony, proportion, balance, rhythm and emphasis adding dimension, interest and/or appeal to the finished product.
- Surface Design: This is any lines, shapes, colors, textures, or materials applied to the product or item’s design that creates an emotional or personal quality, individuality and creative expression without disturbing initial/end purpose/how it is used. Design is that “something” which makes the item unique to the individual designer.
- Reports/Descriptions/Expense Sheet/etc.—Exhibits require a report/description/expense sheet of any kind, can be typed or neatly/legible handwritten. Report should be one-two pages. If typed, it must be double spaced using a minimum of 12-point font. Report MUST be SECURELY attached to the exhibit.
- A county may enter one (1) exhibit in each class. A 4-H member may enter one (1) exhibit per class. Hangers will not be required.

1st - $8.00

2nd - $6.00

3rd - $4.00

4th - $3.00

FFA AGRISCIENCE PROJECT DISPLAY SAFETY RULES

- If an exhibit becomes unsafe or unsuitable for display, it will be removed and deemed ineligible for any awards.
- Projects involving vertebrate animal subjects must conform with the following statement and have a fully completed non-human vertebrate endorsement form submitted: Experiments on live animals involving surgery, the removal of parts, injection of harmful chemicals and/or exposure to harmful environments are not acceptable at the National FFA Agriscience Fair. Live vertebrates may not be exhibited at the fair.

- Hypodermic needles, syringes, crystals [other than sucrose (sugar) and sodium chloride (salt)] and/or toxic and hazardous chemicals are prohibited from display. Students should substitute colored water, photographs, three dimensional models or drawings for chemicals and crystals.
- All necessary chemical glassware must be displayed in a stable manner. The items must be back from the edge of the table and may not be operational at any time.
- No wild cultures may be incubated above room temperature; no cultures taken from humans or other warm-blooded animals may be used. This includes, but is not limited to, skin, throat and mouth.
- Only plastic Petri dishes may be used in displays, and they must be sealed.
- Lasers may not be used in any exhibit.
- Dangerous and combustible materials are prohibited.
- No exhibit may have open flames. Any part of an exhibit that can get hotter than 100 degrees Celsius (boiling water temperature) must be adequately protected from its surroundings.
- If an exhibit includes electrical wiring or devices, they must be safe. For voltages above 20 volts, special precautions must be taken. All connections must be secure and provide suitable protection against short circuits, etc.
- All wiring carrying more than 20 volts must be well insulated. Also, the connections must either be soldered or secured by UL listed fasteners. The wire used must be insulated adequately for the maximum voltage that will be present, and the wire must be of sufficient size to carry the maximum current you anticipate. Open knife switches or door bell-type push buttons in circuits using more than 20 volts may not be used.
- If the exhibit will be connected to 120-volt AC power (plugged into a wall outlet), fuses or circuit breakers must be provided to protect not only the exhibit, but also any others that may share the same sources of power. The power cord used must be UL listed for the voltage and current it will be carrying, and it must be at least 1.8 meters (6 feet) long. National FFA staff must be notified of the need for power at the time of certification so power can be ordered in advance.
- Exhibits requiring voltage in excess of 120 volts AC are not allowed.
- Electricity will be provided.

QUILTS OF VALOR

4-H Leader/Coordinator—Donna Daley

Quilts of Valor Foundation began in 2003 with a dream. Founder Catherine Roberts' son Nat was deployed in Iraq.

According to Catherine: “The dream was as vivid as real life. I saw a young man sitting on the side of his bed in the middle of the night, hunched over. The permeating feeling was one of utter despair. I could see his war demons clustered around, dragging him down into an emotional gutter. Then, as if viewing a movie, I saw him in the next scene wrapped in a quilt. His whole demeanor changed from one of despair to one of hope and well-being.” The quilt had made this dramatic change. The message of my dream was: Quilts = Healing

Rogers County Training Leadership and Community 4-H Club began making quilt tops in June of 2018, and awarded their first quilt in July of 2018. The fabric and quilt design is picked by the members, and then they cut and sew the quilt top. They are then layered and sent to the volunteer quilter who donate their time and thread. It is then returned to our club and binding is added and hand sewn on.

The club picks a person that the quilt will be awarded to, and then starts work on the presentation of the award. Most recipients are not aware that they are being awarded a quilt.

During the ceremony various members talk about the QOV and our club. Then a short bio is given about the recipient, while other members hold the quilt up for all to see. The veteran we are honoring is asked to step forward, and is awarded a certificate. The members wrap the quilt around them to symbolize a hug and one of them will whisper “welcome home.”

TLC members believe it is an honor to be able to honor our veterans.
